Garden Song of 1952

Once again a class will part
And will leave a life that ends
With a fresh and hopeful start
In a life where then it blends
With all and everything.

We have learned of love and truth.
Nature's beauty we can sing;
It will lead us through our youth
To rejoice with every spring
That gives our world new life.

When today will be the past
And the spring and summer too
In our hearts the things that last
Make our thoughts to Packer go
And warm and grateful be.

So we'll strive and so we'll live
With love so strong and tender.
What we have we then will give,
And the world we'll render
Beauty from our lives.

then frolics out to cavort merrily in smiling glee"

CORRINE FAMIGLIETTI

"And every little daisy in the grass
Did look up in her face, and smile to see her pass"

SYRREL D. GERSHEN

"She walks with regal grace, yet
Her bright eye betokens merriment."

CAROLE J. HOAG

"She capers, she dances, she has the eyes of youth"

CONSTANCE E. HUTTER

"As sweet and musical
As bright Apollo's lute"

MARU E. ISENBECKER

"Wherr you do dance, I wish you
A wave o' the sea, that you might ever do
Nothing but that"
